Hoye Family Part of Garrett County History —
Then and Now.

Highest point in Maryland named on behalf of Capt. Charles Hoye (1952). Nephew Robert Hoye donates vehicles to the new Garrett County Museum of Transportation.

Members of the Garrett Historical Society, Bob and Betty Hoye, contributed both the 1925 Ford Model T trucks (shown below) to the new Transportation Museum in memory of Bob's uncle, Capt. Charles Hoye; founder of the Garrett County Historical Society in 1941. Bob's father was Robert Lincoln Hoye, brother of Capt. Hoye. His mother was Bertha Loudermilk. The Hoye's were one of the first families that settled in Garrett County.

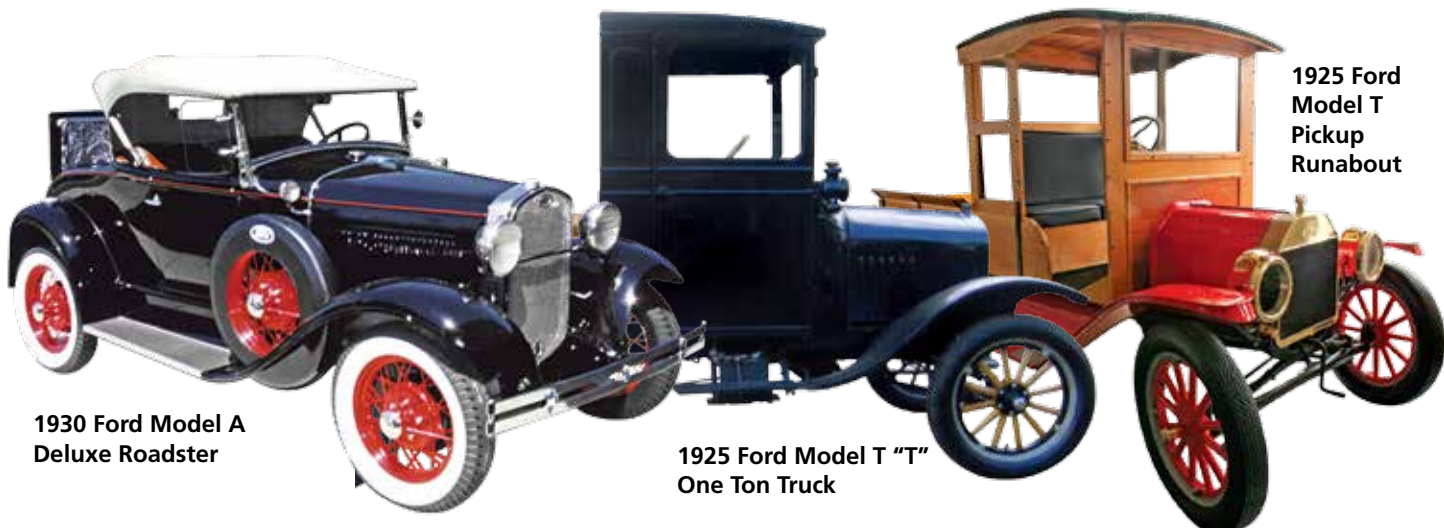

Hoye-Crest, the highest point in Maryland, at 3,360 feet above sea level, was named for Capt. Charles Hoye.

The Hoye's also own a beautiful 1930 Model A Deluxe on loan to the GCHS Transportation Museum. Visit the Garrett County Museum of Transportation on Liberty Street in Oakland, Maryland, to see these beautifully restored vehicles.
