The Sewickley Spa Opens at Deep Creek Lake

The luxurious

Sewickley Spa, with branches in Sewickley and Ligonier, Pennsylvania opens at Wisp at Deep Creek Mountain Resort. Considered to be one of the finest spas in the country, the Sewickley Spa has won numerous awards for best spa in Pennsylvania from several respected publications. The spa has also been awarded Pittsburgh's Top 100 for the past two years. The Sewickley Spa has been written about in national magazines for its unique treatments, and innovative techniques. Dorothy Andreas, founder of the Sewickley Spa, is a noted lecturer on spa business. Ms. Andreas has recently been acknowledged by Gov. Ed Rendell, in conjunction with five Business Journals, as one of Top 50 Women in Business in Pennsylvania. The Sewickley Spa will offer 114 luxury spa services at this state-of-the art facility. Appointments are necessary to enjoy the work of the internationally trained staff. The Sewickley Spa's attention to detail provides an elegant day of pampering to the most exacting of guests. Spa guests can spend an hour or the day being pampered, with services ranging from $30.00 to $300.00. The Sewickley Spa also specializes in groups and corporate events, being recognized as a beneficial retreat.

Once in a lifetime offer, for a once in a lifetime event! An introductory offer, for the residents and visitors to the Deep Creek Area, will be available through July 31, 2003. Eleven treatments, combined during one afternoon at the spa, normally priced at $335.00, is now available for $190.00. In addition, for each purchase of this opening offer, you will receive a VIP discount card, entitling you to 20% off any regular priced service or product for one year.
